

Helicopter Association International

- Established in 1948
- The professional trade association for the international helicopter community
- HAI members comprise more than 3,000 aviation businesses and individuals
- Members in 73 countries
- 59 affiliated organizations
- HAI members operate more than 4,500 helicopters and fly nearly 2.3 million hours each year

Helicopter Association International

- First priority always is safety
- HAI safety initiatives
 - HAI Safety Accreditation Program
 - International Helicopter Safety Foundation
 - Safety town halls
 - Safety education and certification initiatives
 - Online and classroom safety training and certification
 - HAI operator safety awards
 - HAI pilot safety awards
 - HAI maintenance technician awards
 - Free safety literature and educational materials

Helicopter Association International

■ Fly Neighborly

- Voluntary noise reduction program
- Seeks to create better relationships between communities and helicopter operators by establishing noise mitigation techniques and increasing effective communication
- The Fly Neighborly Noise Abatement Training program
 - Teaches pilots and operators noise abatement procedures and situational awareness tools that can be used to minimize the effects of helicopter noise on communities
 - <https://www.rotor.org/initiatives/fly-neighborly>

Helicopter Association International

- Hawaii Air Noise and Safety Task Force
 - Establish a working group of stakeholders with an interest in helicopter operations throughout Hawaii
 - Address safety and noise issues
 - Maintain transparent communications
 - Promote community involvement
 - Conduct public outreach